

Roadless Rulemaking Timeline

- August 30, 2018: USDA issues Notice of Intent to commence an Environmental Impact Statement and state-specific rulemaking process.
- August 30, 2018: Memorandum of Understanding signed establishing the State of Alaska as a cooperating agency for the rulemaking process.
- August 30 – October 15, 2018: U.S. Forest Service conducts public scoping meetings and the Forest Service holds its official public comment period.
- September 28, 2018: Governor Walker names the members of the Roadless Rule Citizen Advisory Committee.
- October 4 – November 30, 2018: The Citizen Advisory Committee collects public comments on its process at http://merid.org/AKroadless/Contact_Us.aspx.
- November 30, 2018: Final recommendations from the Citizen Advisory Committee are due to the Governor.
- Summer 2019: Proposed rule and draft Environmental Impact Statement prepared.
- Summer 2019 – Fall 2019: Forest Service public comment period.
- Summer 2019 – Fall 2019: Citizen Advisory Committee will likely to re-convene to weigh in on the proposed rule.
- Fall 2019: Citizen Advisory Committee will likely collect additional public comments on its process.
- Summer 2020: Final Environmental Impact Statement.
- Summer 2020: Secretary of Agriculture or their designee will make a decision on the final rule.